THE HERITAGE BLUES COMPANY

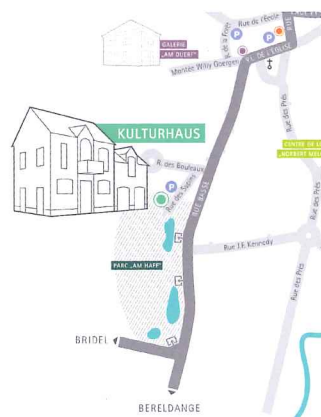

In 2006, Marco (bass) and Mario (guitar) set up The Heritage Blues Company (THBC), named after the Heritage guitar Mario was playing at the time. They play their first gigs in small local bars. Mario, an excellent versatile guitar player, is at this time more or less surrounded by beginners. From there, the band's line-up keeps evolving continuously. In 2008, Rob, a proven blues drummer, boosts the band. Energetic and radiant vocalist Chantal joins in 2013. Her powerful voice soon makes her the front woman of The Heritage Blues Company. The band moves on and keeps on rolling through numerous concerts, from smaller venues to larger events and festivals. With its particular blues-rock touch, THBC plays the most diverse forms of the blues, grooving from boogie to funk. In 2016, Christian, an experienced blues and boogie pianist, completes the line-up. In 2017 The Heritage Blues Company wins the Luxembourg Blues-Contest and will represent the country in 2018 at the European Blues Challenge in Hell, Norway.

LINE-UP: Chantal Gottschalk (voc) | Mario Jung (g, voc) | Christian Ries (p, voc) | Marco Schwickerath (b) | Rob Schauls (dr, voc).

21.40 – 23.00 Auer: SNEAKY PETE

The band's name was inspired by the story of 'Sneaky Pete', an enslaved man during the times of American slavery and black oppression, the times when the roots of blues were born. Sneaky Pete, made a legend from his famous brew, a mix of leftover wine from white owner's barrels. The brew would take his name, 'Sneaky Pete', of which he shared with his fellow slaves. 'Sneaky Pete' is at the heart of blues and soul and the legend is at the heart of the band.

"Sneaky Pete"! A blues band, certainly, but they are so versatile in their approach to contemporary and traditional American music that their tapestry of sound includes R&B, funk, soul, rock'n roll, and of course, blues rock and jazz blues. The band is a conglomerate of six musicians from Venezuela, Luxembourg, Slovenia, and the U.S.A. which formed because everyone had similar thoughts and ideas about music, and forged themselves together based on years of experience from previous groups. They decided to invent a viable and fresh approach to the music they love to express. The band is comprised of the exciting and animated front man and vocalist, Randolph "Randy" Melton, Jr.; the sizzling and explosive guitar work of Claude "Sneaky Pete" Daleiden; the compelling, energetic and versatile keyboards performed by Bojan "Fingers" Perko; the dynamic duo of rhythm, the battery, drummer, Alfredo P. Delgado. LIVE! "Sneaky Pete" is a vibrant and energetic band. The music is up-tempo and rocking! The sounds will make you clap your hands, stomp your feet, and "shake your money maker"!
